Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Berman Capital, LLC. (the Company) as of December 31, 2014, and the related statements of income, changes in members' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. The financial statements are the responsibility of the management of the Company. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The Supplemental Information Required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as listed in the table of contents (supplemental information) has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the management of the Company. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 CFR §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Berman Capital, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

Note 1 - Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

Berman Capital, LLC (the Company) is a California limited liability company formed in July 1998. In February 1999, the Company registered as broker-dealer with the Securities Exchange Commission. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

The Company's activities consist principally of its role as an intermediary and advisor in merger and acquisition transactions. Accordingly, the Company claims exemption from Securities Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 because it does not carry customer funds or handle customer securities.

Basis of accounting

The Company maintains its books on the accrual basis of accounting.

Commissions and fees

The Company records commission and fee income as earned pursuant to the terms of its investment banking agreements.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of amounts on deposit with a commercial bank and registered investment company, in interest and non-interest bearing accounts, available on demand.

Allowance for uncollectible accounts receivable

The Company uses the allowance method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable. Under this method, the Company reviews all receivables for any problems with collection. If the Company feels that there may be a problem with collections, an allowance is provided for the receivable. When attempts to collect a specific receivable are unsuccessful, the account is considered uncollectible and is written off against the allowance. As of December 31, 2014, the Company had no accounts receivable and, accordingly, determined that an allowance for doubtful accounts was not necessary.

Income taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a limited liability company in a manner similar to the taxation of a partnership. The Company is not subject to federal or state taxes on income. Instead, the members include their respective shares of the Company's taxable income or loss in their individual income tax returns.

The Company follows accounting principles generally accepted in the United States related to the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. Adoption of the provisions did not have any impact on the Company's accounting for unrecognized tax liabilities. Management believes that the Company has adequately addressed all tax positions and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. Tax years 2011 to 2014 are open for examination by the Internal Revenue Service and years 2010 to 2014 by the California Franchise Tax Board.

Use of estimates

The Company prepares its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts and disclosures reported in these financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimated.

Advertising costs

Costs incurred for producing and communicating advertising are expensed when incurred. For the year ended December 31, 2014, advertising costs were insignificant.

Estimated fair value of financial instruments

Management estimates that the aggregate net fair value of financial instruments recognized on the statements of financial condition (including cash and cash equivalents, receivables, payables and accrued expenses) approximates their carrying value, as such financial instruments are short-term in nature, bear interest at current market rates or are subject to repricing.

Berman Capital, LLC

Note 2 - Transactions with members (continued)

The Company receives the benefit of certain office and administrative services provided by its members. For the years ended December 31, 2014, the Company reimbursed its members for all significant shared costs.

The Company's members also incur, and pay currently for, certain expenses related to transactions in process. If the transactions close and generate revenue to the Company, the expenses may be reimbursed to the members. If the transactions do not close, the expenses remain those of the members. Accordingly, such costs are recorded as paid. As of December 31, 2014, the Company had reimbursed all significant member incurred costs.

Note 3 - Retirement plan

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan for the benefit of its members. Contributions to the plan are determined annually by the Company's managing member subject to certain maximum amounts allowable under the Internal Revenue Code. No contributions were paid to the plan in the year ended December 31, 2014.

Note 4 - Concentrations

During the year ended December 31, 2014 revenue from one client/contract amounted to 90 percent of total revenues.

Note 5 - Subsequent events

The Company evaluated subsequent events for recognition and disclosure through January 15, 2014, the date which these financial statements were available to be issued. Management concluded that no material subsequent events have occurred since December 31, 2014 that required recognition or disclosure in such financial statements.

Berman Capital, LLC

Note 6 - Net capital requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of a minimum net capital, as defined, and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceeding 15 to 1. As of December 31, 2014 the Company had net capital of $66,170 which exceeded its required net capital by $61,170 and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .023 to 1.

Assertions of Exemption of a Non-Carrying Broker or Dealer required by Rule 17a-5(d)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission

January 15, 2015

Wilson Markle Stuckey Hardesty & Bott LLP
101 Larkspur Landing Circle
Suite 200
Larkspur, CA 94939

Berman Capital, LLC (the Company) is a limited broker-dealer, offering investment banking services. The Company does not directly handle customer funds or securities or any other duties associated with a clearing broker or dealer. The Company is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the event a transaction with a public entity requires a broker-dealer to hold credentials with the SEC.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5 of §240 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Company performs an annual audit and files "Report pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the securities exchange act of 1934" with the SEC. On that report the Company claims exemption to Rule 15c3-3 based on exemption k (2) (i), which is noted below.

(k) Exemptions.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to a broker or dealer:

(i) Who, carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds and delivers all securities received in connection with his activities as a broker or dealer, does not otherwise hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers and effectuates all financial transactions between the broker or dealer and his customers through one or more bank accounts each to be designated as "Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers of Berman Capital, LLC".

The nature of the business of the Company qualifies the firm for this exemption. Further, management has evaluated transactions executed for the year and has verified that no customer funds have been received or distributed for securities transactions or for customer accounts and the Company does not maintain customer accounts. Therefore, the Company has met the identified exemption provisions throughout the recent fiscal year end without exception.

Sincerely,

Marc L. Berman

Report on Assertions of Exemption of a Non-Carrying Broker or Dealer
Required by Rule 17a-5(d)(4) of the Securities and Exchange
Commission

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Assertions of Exemption of a Non-Carrying Broker or Dealer Required by Rule 17a-5(d)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (Report), in which Berman Capital, LLC (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 CFR §15c3-3(k) under which it claimed an exemption from 17 CFR §240.15c3-3: (2)(i) (exemption provisions) and the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The management of the Company is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the compliance by the Company with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on the statements of management. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
